You've yet to clarify your position.

Evidently there is no contradiction as you cannot identify it.

BECAUSE, as I alluded to earlier, I am WAITING.

OBVIOUSLY, one can NOT CLARIFY their position WHEN what has NOT YET been UNDERSTOOD has NOT YET been SHARED.

AND, 'demanding', as I POINTED OUT, EARLIER, does NOT WORK here.

Firstly, what can be CLEARLY SEEN here is just how QUICK the peoples were, back then, to JUMP to A CONCLUSION, based on their OWN ASSUMPTION, even when NO ACTUAL PROOF for said ASSUMPTION and CONCLUSION even actually existed. There are, at least, three False, Wrong, AND Incorrect ASSUMPTIONS and CONCLUSIONS just in that little ten word sentence of yours here.

If it IS the CONTRADICTION, in your TWO CLAIMS there, which you NEED identifying, to you, then if you just SAID SO earlier, and had just ASKED for the IDENTIFYING FEATURES, then 'this' could have been RESOLVED, EARLIER.

Now, as I FOREWARNED you, EARLIER, you WILL NEED to ANSWER CLARIFYING QUESTIONS, FIRST.

you CLAIM that the 'immaterial expanse' is PART OF the 'STRUCTURE of existence'. So, now, what is 'immaterial expanse' made out of, or up of, EXACTLY?

Immaterial expanse is simply immaterial expanse. It isn't made up of constituent elements.

So, if 'immaterial expanse' is NOT made up of 'constituent elements', then 'what' IS 'immaterial expanse' made up of, EXACTLY?

Again, it is not "made up of". Immaterial expanse is simply immaterial expanse.

AND what is ANOTHER WORD FOR 'immaterial expanse'?

IF 'immaterial expanse' is, LOL, not 'made up of', then 'it' is 'what', EXACTLY?

Now, if you can NOT find the Right answer, or just do NOT want to SAY the Right answer, because doing so would CONTRADICT your previous CLAIMS here, then so be it.

But as I FOREWARNED you, you NEED to be OPEN and Honest in ANSWERING a few CLARIFYING QUESTIONS, FIRST, before I will POINT OUT and SHOW the CONTRADICTIONS, and/or INCONSISTENCIES, in YOUR WRITINGS here.

What the term indicates: immaterial expanse. A region or area unoccupied by materiality or energy.

Great, we ARE GETTING CLOSER.

And, a region or area UNOCCUPIED by material NOR energy, can also be known as an area or region of ...? And, even an area or region of 'absolute ...'?

Closer?

That is what it is: immaterial expanse.

EXACTLY. AND, BECAUSE you appear to NOT be ABLE TO PROVIDE ANY 'thing' MORE, then I will just LEAVE 'this' for the readers to SEE IF ANY of 'them' can SPOT the CONTRADICTION in YOUR WRITINGS here. you, OBVIOUSLY, appear to be CLOSED and FINISHED on the PRESUMPTION and CONCLUSION that there is NO CONTRADICTION ANYWHERE in YOUR WRITINGS, correct "daniel j lavender"?

You are unable to identify any contradiction.

The very act of recognizing some thing as "absolute" qualifies said thing as a thing. It identifies a property or quality of that thing. As stated in the original text, things have properties or qualities.

What are you basing this ASSUMPTION ON, EXACTLY?

I ALREADY TOLD you that you would HAVE TO ANSWER SOME CLARIFYING QUESTIONS, OPENLY and Honestly. FIRST, BEFORE I SHOW you WHERE the CONTRADICTION IS, EXACTLY.

you had FINISHED answering, so I had left it.

So what.

you will NOT inform us of what the 'thing' 'immaterial expanse' is made up of, EXACTLY. Unless, OF COURSE, you want to now CLAIM that you do NOT recognize 'immaterial expanse' as some 'thing' nor as 'absolute thing'.

Or, maybe you just can NOT YET identify NOR RECOGNIZE the property or quality of 'immaterial expanse'.

Is 'immaterial expanse' even A 'thing', to you?

This has already been discussed. You've not identified any contradiction.

I suggest reading the entire essay. That should clear up any confusion you may have.

The QUESTIONS I have JUST ASKED here have NOT been discussed BECAUSE I ONLY JUST ASKED 'them'. And, as can be CLEARLY SEEN and PROVED the POINTS and QUESTIONS here have NOT ALREADY BEEN, FULLY, DISCUSSED AT ALL.

ALSO, you do NOT want to DISCUSS and ANSWER what I POINTED OUT and ASKED here because you would THEN EXPOSE THE CONTRADICTION itself.

I KNOW I have NOT YET identified THE CONTRADICTION, TO you.

you, also, BELIEVE that there is NO contradiction, right?

What CONFUSION do you ASSUME, BELIEVE, or KNOW I have here?

I am just WAITING TO REVEAL the CONTRADICTION, to those who are Truly interested, in what you have written so far up to that sub-heading.

THEN I would move ALONG.

Hi, Age. Is the "contradiction" that you are concerned with that "existence" and "infinite" are (perhaps) contradictory terms? And if that is not the "contradication" that you are concerned with, what is the contradiction that you are concerned with? Please clarify.
